

ST. JUDE CATHOLIC COMMUNITY
PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL GUIDELINES

I. MISSION STATEMENT

Led by the Holy Spirit, the mission of the St. Jude Parish Pastoral Council is to nurture the spiritual life of the parish, enhance its growth, and empower the entire faith community in the service of the Lord.

II. NAME

The name of the organization is St. Jude Parish Pastoral Council. It is referred to in this document as the Council.

III. PURPOSES

A. The Parish Pastoral Council is the main advisory body of the parish. It advises the Pastor to guarantee that the parish community will endure for future generations.

1. Pastoral means everything that pertains to the emotional, physical and spiritual care of individuals, families and parish groups.
2. The Council is a faith-filled leadership body that shares responsibility with the Pastor in discerning the needs of the parish.

B. The purpose of the Council is to plan for the Parish's future by recommending policies, procedures and programs to the Pastor. The Council is consultative.

C. Objectives:

1. To promote communication within the parish and between parish organizations.
2. To promote a sense of openness and hospitality in our parish so that all who enters shall feel welcome.
3. To provide a caring and prayerful environment within which all parishioners can find the proper setting to nurture their faith life and contribute to the growth of the parish.
4. To evangelize in the greater community in which we live be leadership exemplary Christian lives, and by inviting and welcoming our neighbors and inactive or alienated Catholics.
5. To accept the challenge of promoting issues of peace and social justice in our community.
6. To continue to provide quality Catholic education for our children and adults.
7. To recognize that our God given gifts are necessary for the continued good of this community.

IV. DECISION-MAKING PROCESS: DISCERNMENT

A. Definitions

1. Discernment is consensus plus the Holy Spirit.
2. To discern means to come to a full knowledge through listening as a relational being, with acute awareness, together with others, of God through the Holy Spirit.

B. The Council uses the prayerful process of discernment for reaching consensus, an agreement with which everyone can be comfortable. It is a faith-filled way to arrive at unanimity among people with different opinions. It should be a compromise position to which everyone can give support.
